Wellsburg Glass House.—Mr. Charles P. Hamilton, of this city, has prepared the drawings for the new Riverside Glassworks of Wellsburg. The following is a description of it: It will be seventy. Peter square frame and sixteen feet story. It will be covered with a hip roof of Hamilton's own invention. This will contain a turnace twenty-three feet in diameter, and arches for ten pots, and will be seventy-five feet high. The furnace will be feel from underneath. There will also be a basement nine feet high, to be used as a store room, sand room and coal room. The building is immediately south of the towr on grounds donated by the citizens of Wellsburg. Directly east of this one will be a building of sixty feet wide and one hundred and twenty long, and two stories respectively nine and twelve feet high, and a roof story of fourteen feet. This building will be used as a mould shop, cleaning room and cutting room on the second floor, and the first floor as a packing room. The third room will be used for storage, all to be connected by steam elevators. The lears or tempering ovens will be on the second floor of the second building, each sixty feet long. These buildings will be completed and ready for operation the first day of January, 1880. John Dornan will be manager, and Charles N. Brady, Secretary of the new Company.

Final Arrangements.—Last night Ed. Cornbauer and Barney Moran, of the Nail City, and Jas. Travis and W. B. Humes, of the Brown Boat Clubs, of this city, met at Sheekey's saloon, on Market street, for the purpose of arranging the final formalities for the coming boat race. The last money, or $500, on either side was deposited with the final stake holder, Major I. Dillon. For judges James Gaither and Samuel Brown were selected to represent the Browns, and Barney Moran and Ed. Cornbauer to take care of the Nail City's interests.

City's interests.

Some little trouble was made afterwards in the selection of a referee. Several names were proposed before a choice was made, but at length Wm. Hastings, Esq., was agreed upon by both parties, and the selection has given universal satisfaction. The wagering on the results has become much livelier, odds now being freely offered on Weisgerber 5 to 3 and 5 to 2, although Felsing's friends are enthusiastic over their man.

The referee will be taken over the course in the James Hamilton, a six-oared gig, by a crew from both clubs.

gig, by a crew from both clubs.

MYLES' ART STUDIO.—We were shown the other day, at Myles' Art Studio, a few samples of the platinotype picture, the latest and most beautiful addition to photographic art. The material used is produced from the metal pianinum. The reactions in the production of the pictures are supremely grand. Nothing is left on the surface on which the figure is printed but pure platinum black or a fine deposit of the metal; therefore, the main beauty of the platinotype is in its permanency. The picture, in tone, is that of the finest steel engraving or finished India ink, and far surpassing both in fine detail, as nothing is lost in printing from the negative. Persons wishing (by calling at Myles' Art Studio), can have their portraits placed upon silk and linen handkerchiefs or other fabrics, as washing, starching and ironing will not injure the picture in the least.

HYMENIAL.—At 7 o'clock last evening, at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, by the Rev. Schleicher, Mr. Christ. Blum, a member of the Miller Glee Club, was married to Miss Clementine Weeber, daughter of Mr. Frank A. Weeber, of the South Side. The following were the atdaughter of Mr. Frank A. Woeber, of the South Side. The following were the attendants: Mr. Frank Woeber and Miss Lizzie Snyder, Mr. Adam Blum and Miss Maggie Cornbauer, Mr. Adam Hess and Miss Lena Renner. After the coremonies they proceeded to the house of the bride, where a reception was held to only their most intimate friends. During the evening the Miller Glee Club presented to Mr. Blum a handsomely, apprayed silver ice. Blum a handsomely engraved silver ice pitcher and cup, with the following in-scription: "Presented to Mr. and Mrs. C. Blum by the Miller Glee Club, September 25, 1879." 25, 1879.

Miss McKennan is one of Washington's fairest and brightest daughters, and we congratulate Mr. Cummins on securing such an agreeable and sensible life companion. What Washington has lost Wheeling has gained, and to the Nail City's social crown has been added another bright gem, of which she may well be proud.

Missionary Meeting. — The Womans' Foreign Missionary Society met at the Thomson M. E. Church at 10½ o'clock yesterday morning. A general love feast being the order of the morning, some interesting remarks were present from various points throughout the State. They all reported much work being done in their respective districts. A meeting was held at 2½ P. M., Miss Taylor presiding. Mrs. Hobbs, of the Zane Street Church, addressed the meeting with some interesting remarks concerning the cause. Mrs. Rev. Thatcher, of Dallas, was elected District Treasurer. A vote of thanks was tendered the gentlemen of the press for their kindness in supplying programmes, &c., for the convention. The meeting was interspersed with singing and prayers. Rev. Wilson Presiding Elder of the Wheeling District, having been invited to address the meeting, delivered some encouraging remarks. After singing, "Near the Cross," the meeting adjourned, and met at 7½ P. M., when it was addressed by Mrs. Rev. Thatcher and Mrs. Dr. George. The meeting then adjourned to meet at Moundsville, September 25th, 1880.

Killed.—The train going East over the Parkersburg Branch of the B. & O. road, yesterday morning, struck and instantly killed a girl 16 years of age, about a mile west of Clarksburg, at 11 o'clock. She was standing on the track watching the approach of a train on the Weston Narrow Gauge, and, although whistled at by the B. & O. engineer, did not hear him.

Subprise Party.—A merry crowd of young folks took possession of the parlors at the residence of Mr. Wm. K. Elson, East Wheeling, Wednesday evening, the occasion being the birthday of his youngest daughter. In addition to the surprise Miss Bessie received, she was also the recipient of a handsome onyx ring, a birthday-gift from her father.

ciation was distinct, gestures graceful; which, coupled with faultiess elocution and intelligent reading, held the closest attention of the audience to the close. The next number, "in Shades of Night." rendered by C. Y. Lucas, was given in that gentleman's best style. Mr. Lucas was never in better voice than last night, and was rewarded by an encore. A select reading by Hon. O. S. Long, "A part of the story of Joseph, as told in the Talmud,"was an appropriate selection, and was highly appreciated. The reader has a pleasant and engaging manner which ever makes him popular in entertainments of the nature of last evening. The programme closed with a piano obligato, "Waltz, by Chopin," and "Spinning Song, by Lizst," by Profs. Herrmann and Armstrong. These gentlemen contributed greatly to the enjoyment of the occasion, and were appreciated beyond the power of our pen to tell.

After the exercises were over the usual 'Babel hum' commenced, which more than anything else told that the audience was enjoying itself in the manner usual with such gatherings. Although a cool night, the ice-cream supply gave out, and the forage committee had to go out and skirmish for more. Altogether, it was the most successful Social ever held, and the "L.s," no doubt, slept better than ordinarily in knowing the fact. When is the next one? we heard some one remark, coming out. That shows they are popular.

PERSONAL MENTION.—The Washington (Pa.) Reporter, of last evening, says: "The Morgantown Weekly Post speaks in very flattering terms of our old townsman, Dr. Thomas H. Logan, of Wheeling, and endorses the recommendation of the Buckhannon Delta, which places him before the people as a candidate for Governor of West Yirginia. This is a nomination honorable to the Doctor and gratifying to his friends. The Doctor has our vote."

The Business Beons.

The business boom is lively in St. Louis The Globe says the business men of that city "state it as their emphatic opinion that more money has been made in St. Louis during the past two months than during any period in the history of the city. There are more strangers in the city and more people in the streets, and even the most prudent merchants are rash enough to openly acknowledge that they are making money." Of Philadelphia the North American says that never aince the Centennial has the Quaker City been so crowded as now. Hotels are all full to the roofs, and travelers have been astonished with the reply of the clerks that not one more could be accommodated. Pedestrians jostle each other on the sidewalks, trucks and draysloaded with goods block up the highways, and clerks are kept busy until late at night settling up the sales of the day.
